

US Courier & Logistics Branch Manager, John DiTucci Jr., Elected to Express Carriers Association Board of Directors

Dallas, TX – May 1, 2006 – US Courier & Logistics, a leader in the Courier and Delivery Industry since 1984, announces its Austin Branch Operations Manager has been elected to the Express Carriers Association (ECA) Board of Directors.

John DiTucci Jr., was elected to a two-year board position during the ECA Annual National Convention on April 22, 2006. The ECA is an organization designed to develop business relationships between carriers, shippers and vendors of products and services to the transportation industry.

About US Courier & Logistics

Headquartered in the Dallas/Ft. Worth Metroplex, with fully staffed operations in Houston, Austin and San Antonio, Texas, US Courier offers a variety of same-day pick up and delivery services, including On-Demand, Scheduled Runs, Freight, Warehouse and Distribution. Recently ranked by the Dallas Business Journal as the 3rd largest Courier Company in the area, US Courier takes the “one source” approach in providing solutions for their customers.